hearing. The murder case of Bob cision of the lower court has been reversed. Hughes will be tried again and the general opinion prevails that he will be acquitted. It seems that Smiley had not properly qualified as an officer and therefore had no right to arrest Hughes.

MAY BE MURDER.

Blood Shed at a Negro Festival at Beverly.A shooting that is pretty apt to result in a killing occurred at Beverly Saturday night.The colored population had a festival in the blacksmith's shop at Beverly and a fight came up between Albert Dade and another negro whose name is not known. Dade pulled a pistol and shot at the other, missing him and hitting Lee Radford, who was in no way concerned in the fight.
The ball struck Radford in the side and passed clear through his body making a wound almost necessarily fatal. Radford was still alive yesterday morning, but his condition was regarded as hopeless. Radford lives with his brother who is a farm hand at Ernest Steger's, near Longview.Dade lives at I. H. Cayce's, near Beverly. He has made no attempt to get away and was at work as usual yesterday. No warrant had been sworn out for his arrest yesterday afternoon.As the grand jury is now in session, the case will doubtless be investigated without an examining trial.

THE SECOND DISTRICT MAN NOMI-NATED FOR CLERK.The Democratic Platform The Straight-Goods—Proceedings of The Frankfort State Convention.Frankfort, Ky., June 2.—After permanently organizing at the afternoon session by electing Geo. S.
Fulton, of Nelson, permanent chairman, and retaining the temporary secretaries, the convention adjourned till 8 o'clock. Two ballots taken showed the candidates well bunched, with Mason in the rear. At midnight the convention adjourned till 9 o'clock Thursday.

THE LAST DAY.

Frankfort, Ky., June 3.—Sam J.
Shackelford, of Daviess county, received the Democratic nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals this afternoon on the 10th ballot which resulted as follows: Shackelford 571, Green 523.The convention was called to order at 9:30 and Chairman Fulton made a strong appeal for harmony and for the convention to proceed in order.On the arrival of the morning train and the announcement of the arrival of the Dispatch the convention asked for time. Senator Hays moved that recess of ten minutes be taken to read the Dispatch. It was declared carried and the papers were spread over the hall.The motion of Chas. M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, that no further nominations be made and that the voting be confined to the candidates now before the convention meant business and that things were going to be brought to a close, if it could be done by the delegates.The third, fourth and fifth ballots were merely the casting of each candidate's instructed vote. The greatest excitement was occasioned pending the tabulation of the vote of the sixth ballot, as according to the resolution the hindmost name should be dropped.
Delegates began to pull for their friends and there were hardly a half dozen delegates in their seats.
On the count Green led and Mason's name was dropped.During the seventh ballot it was shown that the fight was between Green and Richardson. Delegates began to get quiet, and keenest interest was manifested. As the votes of Mason shifted to various candidates cheers went up. Green fell heir to a majority of Mason's vote.The seventh ballot resulted: Green, 278, Watson, 192, Ford, 184 Shackelford 201, Richardson, 239.

Ford's name was dropped.

On the eighth ballot it was apparent that Ford was throwing his vote to Shackelford.The eighth ballot resulted: Green, 319, Richardson, 241, Shackelford, 320, Watson 212.

Watson's name was dropped.

On ninth ballot Graves, Watson's county, went for Green.There was increased interest in the ninth ballot, which resulted: Green, 437, Shackelford, 381, Richardson, 275.

Richardson was dropped.

During the taking of the tenth ballot the convention hall was a perfect sea of excitement.
